Our story "It's magic since 2002"

The smallest Big Blues Festival in Switzerland.

2023-2024: Le ultime due edizioni

Questo piccolo ma grande festival open-air, giunto alla 23° edizione, accoglie sui palchi delle più belle e suggestive piazze della Vallemaggia interpreti nazionali ed internazionali della musica blues e blues-rock. Grazie all'originale unione fra musica di qualità e suggestive scenografie, la manifestazione si è ritagliata definitivamente uno spazio tra i maggiori festival musicali della regione. In programma sull'arco di 5 settimane tra luglio e agosto una ventina di concerti sulle piazze dei villaggi della Vallemaggia. ## 2024. "Magical vibes!"

Una 22° edizione difficile ma da incorniciare.

Le premesse non erano delle migliori: una Vallemaggia ferita fisicamente dalla terribile alluvione e toccata anche psicologicamente, cosciente che niente sarà come prima. Abbiamo subito voluto dare un segnale di rilancio e di rinascita della valle intera e, favoriti (sembra un controsenso) dalla meteo ideale e dalla voglia di reagire degli indigeni, abbiamo presentato un'edizione quasi completa con il popolo del Blues (e non solo) che ha capito e riempito le piazze. La partenza a Moghegno ha proposto due serate europee, impreziosite dai concerti degli Harlem Lake e dai The Cinelli Brothers. A Gordevio Selwyn Birchwood, con il suo "Electric Swamp Funkin' Blues" e con influenze che vanno da Buddy Guy a Jimi Hendrix, ha impressionato il pubblico, con uno stile chitarristico molto personale. La 6ª edizione della "Magic Rock Night", ha proposto una stupenda "Swiss Rock Night" con la crème della crème made in Suisse: CoreLeoni e China che hanno messo a fuoco e fiamme il campetto di Gordevio offrendo ai numerosi fans una serata che rimarrà negli annali del Magic Blues! Avegno ha riproposto tre grandi ritorni e un'ottima band svizzera, i grigionesi Bluesick, una delle gradite sorprese, capaci di entusiasmare tutto il pubblico presente, dimostrandosi trampolino ideale per la straordinaria esibizione al fulmicotone dei King King. Il giorno prima ottimo set di Joe Colombo, con il suo power trio e del gruppo di Luca Giordano, arricchito dal profeta del Blues Mighty Mo' Rodgers, che dopo Birchwood, ci ha presentato un'altra faccia del blues moderno. Chiusura a Maggia con il boogie di Elias Bernet e un'altra leggenda del blues, Duke Robillard, che ha deliziato il palato dei suoi ammiratori. Concerto per palati fini, che sanno cogliere le finezze della musica proposta dal 75enne di Rhode Island. Ultima serata da capogiro con due gruppi straordinari. La grande sorpresa di questa edizione Davide Delcò, straordinario chitarrista di casa nostra e la Band of Friends del mitico Gerry McAvooy, che affiancato da Brendan O'Neill alla batteria e da due chitarristi fenomenali, Jim Kirkpatrick e Paul Rose hanno mandato in visibilo il pubblico! Miglior concerto! Non poteva esserci chiusura migliore per un'edizione che verrà ricordata sì per le vicissitudini citate in apertura, ma anche per la grande musica proposta sera dopo sera. Serata speciale con la Vasco Jam per festeggiare i 40 anni di attività con due super ospiti Claudio "Il Gallo" Golinelli storico bassista di Vasco Rossi e Andrea Braido.

2024. "Magical vibes!" A difficult but frame-worthy 22nd edition.

The premises were not the best: a Vallemaggia physically wounded by the terrible flood and touched psychologically as well, aware that nothing will be like before. We immediately wanted to give a signal of revival and rebirth of the whole valley and, favored (it seems a nonsense) by the ideal weather and the natives' will to react, we presented an almost complete edition with the people of the Blues (and not only) who understood and filled the squares. The start in Moghegno offered two European evenings, enhanced by concerts by Harlem Lake and The Cinelli Brothers. In Gordevio Selwyn Birchwood, with his "Electric Swamp Funkin' Blues" and with influences ranging from Buddy Guy to Jimi Hendrix, impressed the audience with a very personal guitar style. The 6th edition of the "Magic ROCK Night," featured a stupendous "Swiss Rock Night" with the crème de la crème made in Suisse: CoreLeoni and China who set the Gordevio field on fire and flames, offering the numerous fans an evening that will remain in the annals of Magic Blues! Avegno showcased three great comebacks and an excellent Swiss band, the Graubünden-based Bluesick, one of the welcome surprises, capable of thrilling the entire audience in attendance, proving to be the ideal springboard for the extraordinary lightning-fast performance of King Kings. The day before excellent set by Joe Colombo with his power trio and Luca Giordano's group, enhanced by Blues prophet Mighty Mo' Rodgers, who, after Birchwood, presented us with another face of modern blues. Closing in Maggia with the boogie of Elias Bernet and another blues legend, Duke Robillard, who delighted the palate of his admirers. A concert for fine palates who can grasp the subtleties of the music offered by the 75-year-old from Rhode Island. A dizzying final evening with two extraordinary groups. The big surprise of this edition Davide Delcò, our own guitarist extraordinaire, and the Band of Friends by the legendary Gerry McAvoy, who joined by Brendan O'Neill on drums and two phenomenal guitarists, Jim Kirkpatrick and Paul Rose sent the audience into raptures! Best concert! There could not have been a better closing for an edition that will be remembered yes for the vicissitudes mentioned in the opening, but also for the great music offered night after night. Special evening with the Vasco Jam to celebrate 40 years of activity with two super guests Claudio "Il Gallo" Golinelli historical bassist of Vasco Rossi and Andrea Braido

2023. "...and the Magic goes on!!!"

Una XXIa edizione da incorniciare all'insegna della grande musica.

La 21° edizione del Vallemaggia Magic Blues, sotto lo slogan "...and the Magic goes on!!!" si è svolta dal 7 luglio al 3 agosto 2023 ed è stata un successo! Unico neo la meteo. Un palinsesto infarcito di parecchi nomi importanti ha regalato momenti di grande musica, consegnando alla storia un'edizione forse la migliore in assoluto, superiore per qualità anche a quella del 20°. Che si respirasse una gran voglia di buona musica lo si è percepito già a Brontallo con il solido trio di Joe Valeriano e l'esibizione del simpatico LeBurn Maddox. La "5° European Blues Night" ha finalmente convogliato in piazza un nutrito numero di spettatori, certamente entusiasti dei tre gruppi presenti, con particolare menzione per i Muddy What? una delle belle sorprese di questa edizione. A Giumaglio un gran Gennaro Porcelli e l'ottima band di Peter Karp impreziosita dalla duttile slide di Mark Johnson (Delta Moon) hanno incantato e premiato i pochi coraggiosi che hanno sfidato il maltempo con due grandi concerti. Le due serate di Avegno si sono rivelate ancora più interessanti di quanto ci si aspettava grazie al chitarrista Patrik Jansson, molto coeso con un sound groovy, alla splendida voce di Kyla Brox e all'estro del quartetto di Ghalia Volt, cantante coinvolgente come poche. L'ampia piazza di Cevio ha ospitato tre serate con mostri sacri quali i Colosseum, il chitarrista dei Motörhead Phil Campbell con i suoi The Bastard Sons e Matt Schofield che hanno confermato in pieno le loro indubbie qualità artistiche. A dirla tutta i Colosseum hanno pure lasciato di stucco i molti musicisti presenti ad un concerto che di primo acchito alcuni hanno definito il migliore della storia del Magic Blues. Bene in apertura i Golden Voltures, Marco Zappa e Flo Bauer & Circle of Mud. Maggia ha regalato due giorni di grande musica, merito, dopo il bel concerto in apertura della band di Lilly Martin, di un Tommy Castro strepitoso, chitarrista stellare che ha deliziato il pubblico con un set molto variegato, mai banale, con una seconda parte da "Premio Nobel" per intensità ed emozione. Chiusura con il Blues, Ragtime e Boogie di Marco Marchi e i suoi Mojo Workers e il cantante e chitarrista danese Thorbjørn Risager che ha chiuso l'edizione 2023 con uno stupendo concerto capace di muoversi in scioltezza tra Blues, R&B, Rock, Jazz e Soul; certamente un'altra delle belle sorprese di questa edizione che ricorderemo a lungo!

2023. "...and the Magic goes on!!!" A 21st edition to be framed under the banner of great music.

The 21st edition of Vallemaggia Magic Blues, under the slogan "...and the Magic goes on!!!" took place from July 7 to August 3, 2023 and was a success! The only downside was the weather. A schedule packed with several big names provided moments of great music, consigning to history perhaps the best edition ever, superior in quality even to that of the 20th. That there was a great appetite for good music was perceived already in Brontallo with the solid trio of Joe Valeriano and the performance of the likeable LeBurn Maddox. The "5th European Blues Night" finally conveyed to the square a large number of spectators, who were certainly enthusiastic about the three bands present, with special mention for Muddy What? one of the nice surprises of this edition. In Giumaglio, a great Gennaro Porcelli and Peter Karp's excellent band enhanced by the ductile slide of Mark Johnson (Delta Moon) enchanted and rewarded the brave few who braved the bad weather with two great concerts. The two evenings in Avegno turned out to be even more interesting than expected thanks to guitarist Patrik Jansson, very cohesive with a groovy sound, Kyla Brox's splendid voice and the quartet flair of Ghalia Volt, an engaging singer like few others. Cevio's spacious square hosted three evenings with such holy monsters as Colosseum, Motörhead guitarist Phil Campbell with his The Bastard Sons and Matt Schofield, who fully confirmed their undoubted artistic qualities. To be fair, Colosseum also left the many musicians in attendance awestruck at a concert that at first glance some called the best in Magic Blues history. Golden Vultures, Marco Zappa and Flo Bauer & Circle of Mud did well in the opening acts. Maggia gave two days of great music, credit, after the fine opening concert by Lilly Martin's band, to a resounding Tommy Castro, a stellar guitarist who delighted the audience with a very varied set, never dull, with a second half that was "Nobel Prize" in intensity and emotion. Closing with the Blues, Ragtime and Boogie of Marco Marchi and his Mojo Workers and the Danish singer and guitarist Thorbjørn Risager who closed the 2023 edition with a stupendous concert capable of moving fluently between Blues, R&B, Rock, Jazz and Soul; certainly another of the beautiful surprises of this edition that we will remember for a long time!
